

Joyce Snadden Reserve & Old Port Canal Gardens Redevelopment, Port

Landscape Concept

November 2024

1. Improved rock retaining edge to offer informal beach access

2. Retained bench seating with views to canal

3. Beach sand to offer access to water access

4. Maintained shared use pathway

5. Upgraded lighting to shared use pathway

6. New informal quarry lines pathway through reserve

7. New native tree planting for improved shade and amenity

8. New irrigated turf

9. New shelter with surrounding amenity including picnic tables, seating, bins, drink fountain and BBQ

10. New shared use pathway alignment for improved safety and access across Minorie's Street

11. New compliant pram ramps and crossing to Minorie's Street

12. New amenity garden beds with low planting
13. Existing paving and plaza maintained

14. Removal of raised garden beds for improved sight lines and Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED)

15. New exposed aggregate concrete shared use pathway connection to Port Plaza

16. New pathways to maintain access to private residences

17. Retention of existing London Plane trees

18. Low topographic mounding for interest

19. Removal of sunken amphitheatre for improved sight lines and Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED)

20. Strengthened pedestrian connection to Port Plaza

21. New ramped pedestrian connection to Old Port Road